

WHAT AM I VOTING FOR ON NOVEMBER 3RD?

Here are some of the people Pennsylvanians will be voting for and what they do.

U.S. REPRESENTATIVE (Every 2 years)

What they Do? They represent your part of Pennsylvania in the U.S. Congress at the national (federal) level. They create and change laws and decide how the federal government spends your tax money.

This can affect: Taxes, healthcare, Social Security and Medicare, education, immigration, public health, transportation, jobs and federal programs.

PA GOVERNOR (Every 4 years)

What they Do? They lead Pennsylvania, can sign bills into law or stop them with a veto, and propose the budget for how the state spends money.

This can affect: Schools, roads and transportation, healthcare, jobs, public safety, childcare, environmental protections and state services.

PA LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR (Every 4 years)

What they Do? This role is like the Vice President. They are second in command, can cast the deciding vote when there is a tie in the PA Senate, and become Governor if the Governor can no longer serve.

This can affect: State laws when there is a tie in the PA Senate, pardons and who leads Pennsylvania if the Governor can no longer serve.

PA REPRESENTATIVE (Every 2 years)

What they Do? They are one of 203 PA Representatives who work in Harrisburg. They vote on Pennsylvania laws and how the state spends money (tax dollars).

This can affect: Schools, taxes, healthcare, wages, childcare, housing, public safety, roads and transportation (including public transportation like SEPTA), environmental protections, and other state services.

PA SENATOR (Every 4 years depending on where you live)

What they Do? They are one of 50 PA Senators who work in Harrisburg. They vote on Pennsylvania laws and how the state spends money (tax dollars).

This can affect: Schools, taxes, healthcare, wages and workplace rules, childcare, roads, public transportation, housing, reproductive healthcare and public safety
