

A BROTHER'S GENEROSITY MAKES A LASTING DIFFERENCE

Mr. Russell Duane II, a devoted family man and resident of Chester County, was a dedicated, longtime supporter of The Fund. In 2015, he spoke with staff and board leadership at The Fund about establishing the Bonnie Iselin Endowment Fund in memory of his sister, Margaretta (Bonnie) Iselin, who was a strong advocate for women's rights. A few years later, The Fund was notified that he had also planned a generous portion of his estate to be gifted to The Fund.

"Mr. Duane wanted to foster change and knew he could trust The Fund to do so for future generations."

OUR MISSION

The Fund for Women and Girls leads and unites the community through philanthropy and advocacy to ensure that women and girls have the resources and opportunities to thrive.

OUR VISION

Women and girls will have equality and security, making our communities stronger and more vibrant for everyone. The Fund will be seen as a vital partner and leader, known for our boldness, connectivity and creativity as we bring together and support individuals around a shared commitment to the well-being and self-determination of women and girls.

IGNITE THEIR FUTURE, INVEST IN OUR VISION

Create extraordinary opportunities for women and girls

The Founders of Chester County Fund for Women and Girls (CCFWG) talked around kitchen and coffee tables, while walking with strollers, and on the phone after their jobs and daily responsibilities were behind them. Their focus was clear - how to help women and girls and their families in Chester County. The end result was Chester County Fund for Women and Girls, now known as The Fund for Women and Girls, a local non-profit committed to igniting change in Chester County.
